MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 17th August 1967

S.R.O. 271.—The following bye-laws for the regulation and control of loud speakers in Dagshai Cantonment made by the Cantonment Board, Dagshai, in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (28), (38) and (39) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are hereby published, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said act, namely:—

BYE-LAWS FOR THE CONTROL OF LOUD SPEAKERS

1. These bye-laws may be called the Dagshai Cantonment (Control of loud speakers) Bye-laws, 1966.

2. No person shall, except with the previous permission in writing of the Cantonment Executive Officer and on payment of the requisite fee and on such conditions as may be imposed under these bye-laws, make use of any loud speaker, whether stationary or fitted to any moving vehicle, within the limits of Dagshai Cantonment:

Provided that no such permission will be necessary nor any charges made if a loud speaker is used by any agency of the Central or the State Government or the Dagshai Cantonment Board in the discharge of its duties.

3. All applications for obtaining permission shall be submitted to the Executive Officer who may, with due regard to public safety and convenience, in his discretion refuse or grant permission; and in granting such permission he may impose such conditions in respect of the use of the apparatus as are in his opinion reasonable.

4. Any permission given or condition imposed under these bye-laws may be withdrawn or varied by the Executive Officer where such withdrawal or variation appears necessary in the interest of the public.

5. Any person aggrieved by an order of the Executive Officer under these bye-laws, may appeal to the Board within ten days from the date of communication of such order to him.

6. A contravention of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
